4.- How to reach RHEA Meeting by Bus and/or Metro

The nearest Metro station is Ciudad Universitaria (Line 6, grey color). Line 6 is connected to Line 3 (yellow color) in Moncloa station.

Line 3 travels from Plaza España to Moncloa (final station). Line 3 also comes from stations Callao, Sol...

Traveling along Line 3 the following two options are available:

1) Change to line 6 (Andén 2) in Moncloa and get off in Ciudad Universitaria (1 station). From Ciudad Universitaria you can take Buses U or G.

2) Get off in Moncloa and take bus G (the unique bus recommended).

Remarks:

- The final bus stop of U is located at the back of the building of “Facultad de Informatica”. Once it reaches the final bus stop all passengers must get off.

- If you take bus G, before you get off it must trace a semi-circumference surrounding a sports area (rugby, football). Immediately after this semi-circumference you must get off and walk along a path starting on the bus stop, after 200m (approx.) you reach the “Facultad de Informática”.

- Please, plan your travel considering that at least 30 minutes are needed to reach the Facultad de Informática from Moncloa.
5.- How to come back from the RHEA Meeting by Bus and/or Metro

You can take Buses U and 82. Please, note that bus G is not recommended now.

- The U bus stop is located in front of the Facultad de Informática. You must get off when it arrives to Metro Ciudad Universitaria and take the Underground (direction Moncloa).

- Bus stop 82 is located in the same place that the G bus stop. You can get off at Metro Ciudad Universitaria. But also with bus 82 you can reach directly Metro Moncloa (its final bus stop is located at the street Meléndez Valdés parallel to Princesa street).
